Consolidation Proposed.

A movement for the consolidation of Newport, Bellevue and Dayton with the ultimate view of taking in Fort Thomas and other contiguous territory has been started by the Newport Business Men's Club and the Bellevue Welfare Association.

Newport has population estimated at 30,000 and Bellevue and Dayton about 20,000 which would make Newport have 50,000 if the annexation is made. Such a consolidation, it is claimed, by members of both bodies will be sure to bring about decreased taxation and questions of public need which are hanging fire would be quickly solved by the combined cities.

Woodford "Wets" Want Election.

The whisky men of Woodford county are circulating petitions calling for an election September 28, on the question of bringing the saloons back into the county. Under the present law they will have to get 25 per cent of the legal voters in each precinct to sign the petition before an election is called.

The last local option election was held in 1906, when the county went dry by 534 majority. Both sides are organized, and if the wets succeed in having an election ordered the campaign will be a hard and vigorous one.

Ground to Pieces Benath Engine

In full view of a crowd of fifty people Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock Sylvester Whalon, employed by the L. & N., met a terrible death when he was run down and killed by an engine directly in front of the passenger depot.

Whalon was engaged in shoveling rubbish from the track between the depot and the Winchester crossing. He was working near an engine taking water, and while in a stooping posture another engine in charge of a hostler, backed up the track where he was at work.

Whalon was unconscious of the approach of the locomotive, which was due to the noise of the engine near which he was working, and until a spectator called to him was unaware of the approaching danger. Partly rising he grabbed for the engine in an effort to save his life. He was, however, knocked down and dragged a distance of more than one hundred feet. The engine passed over his body which was horribly mangled.

The hostler in charge of the engine knew nothing of the accident until the cries of the eye-witnesses attracted his attention, and he brought the locomotive to a stop a short distance above the Winchester street crossing. Coroner Rudolph Davis was at once notified and he held an inquest over the remains. The jury composed of S. G. Clay, D. W. Peed, Hiram A. Galbraith, W. P. Shelton, W. F. Hedges and J. C. Snyder, returned a verdict in accordance with the facts.

The mangled remains were removed to the undertaking establishment of Mr. George W. Davis, where they were prepared for burial and later removed to his home on Vine street.

Whalon is survived by a wife and a little daughter aged about 7 years. Yesterday the remains were taken to Curry, Harrison county, on the 3:30 p. m. train for burial.

Man and Wife Slain.

William Swinn and his wife, Eliza Swinn, were attacked near their home on Quicksand Creek, in Breathitt county, Sunday evening by Norman and Alonzo Allen and both were killed. The trouble arose over a family difficulty. Alonzo Allen was wounded by Swinn, who returned the fire of the two brothers. Alonzo Allen was taken to a Lexington hospital. His brother is still at large.

Lambs Shipped East.

W. G. McClintock, of Paris, last week shipped to the New York and other Eastern markets more than 1,000 lambs, averaging a little better than 75 pounds per head. They cost six cents per pound. Mr. McClintock has purchased of lambs that will aggregate 3,000 head. There are now about 10,000 head of lambs in the hands of the farmers that will be shipped to the East within the next month.

Farmers Dispose of Cattle.

The scarcity of grass is forcing the farmers of the county to dispose of their live stock, and cattle producers of the county are readily selling this class of stock. Monte Fox, of Danville, purchased export cattle of the following farmers Friday: C. C. Clark, 40 head; H. S. Caywood, 40 head; W. B. Woodford, 32 head; and Thomason & Collins, 126 head. These cattle will kick the beam at 1,500 pounds and have cost their owners every cent they will bring and in most instances more. They were sold at 6 cents per pound for shipment during the first half of August. Warren Rogers also sold to Jonas Weil, of Lexington, a bunch of fancy export steers for 6 cents per pound and a premium.

Foot Injured.

Houston Henry, flagman on the L. & N. commuter between Paris and Lexington had his foot injured one day last week and narrowly escaped meeting with a serious accident. Mr. Henry was boarding a car when the steps to the platform broke. In falling a wheel passed over the outer edge of his shoe, barely touching the flesh.

Large Engines on K. C. Division.

Three of the large engines of the latest twelve hundred pattern designed and built in the shops of the L. & N. railroad company in Louisville, have been received on this division of the road. The engines were designed and constructed to haul the heaviest traffic over the road and will be put into general use immediately. Two more locomotives of the same type will be received here in a few days and a total of twelve of the immense iron horses will be in operation on this line.

The Right Idea.

During and following the game at Maysville Sunday afternoon, between Paris and Maysville, Manager McKernan, as well as other members of the Paris club, were subjected to the most ungentlemanly treatment, and insult after insult was heaped upon them by a large crowd. Of the occurrence the Daily Ledger has the following:

"Manager McKernan, of the Paris Club, conducted himself in a most gentlemanly way yesterday, and the evidence of rowdism manifested against him after the game closed was perpetrated by a lot of senseless hoodlums who should be looked after by the police. They have no knowledge of baseball, and such outbreaks only reflect discredit on Maysville as a rough ball town. It's up to the local management to put a stop to this sort of business before something of a serious nature occurs to mar the sport."

Conditions in Kentucky About Same.

Unless something is done in the near future to prevent the wholesale destruction of fish and game in and out of season, Kentucky fields will be bare of birds and the streams without fish. Even now there is but little use for the gun or pole and line, and the scarcity of game and fish is a constant inducement to violation of law in the shooting of game out of season and in the use of dynamite and seines.

Two things are necessary for the preservation of the game and fish. One of these is the protection of the game now existing, and the other is the stocking of streams and fields by means of fish hatcheries and game preservers.

The killing off of the game was a result of prejudice against the game laws, based on the belief that game laws were advocated solely for the benefit of hunters, but the people will realize that good game laws are for the benefit of everybody.

The Kentucky Fish and Protective Association is now trying to get every hunter and fisherman in the state interested in the passage of better laws along this line. One of its plans is for the state to charge a license of one dollar per year to every man who hunts on other men's land, and to charge non-residents of Kentucky at least ten dollars per year for hunting in the state. Similar laws are now in force in every state in the Union except Kentucky and about three other states.

Under such a law a sufficient fund could be raised to employ men to see that fish and game laws are enforced and to provide stocks of fish and game for every field and stream in the state. Of course, if a man doesn't care a dollar's worth about hunting he wouldn't have to raise a license, and the burden would fall on those who would be glad to pay so small a sum for so much pleasure.

One of the big benefits to be derived by the farmers would be the enforcement of the poaching laws and keeping trespassers off their lands. Under the present conditions, many farmers allow themselves to be imposed upon rather than drive hunters away, but a small game warden would have no such feeling in the matter.

In order to make the appointment of wardens non-political, it is proposed to put the employment of the wardens under the supervision of a non-partisan commission of four, two to be selected by the Senate and two by the House of Representatives, who shall serve without compensation except for necessary expenses.

The new game laws have helped to replenish the supply of quail in Madison, but still hundreds are slain each year before and after the law expires. The fish laws are a farce and dynamite and seines are used without fear.

STOCK, CROPS AND FARM NOTES

—The Georgetown fair begins today to continue for five days.

—Parts of Nicholas county are suffering greatly from dry weather. In some places very little rain has fallen and stock water is running out and crops are burning up. All over the county there is much damage being done to the crops by the dry weather prevailing and the farmers report that the vegetation is burning up faster than before known this year.

—The total receipts of live stock in the Chicago market for the week ending June 15, were 58,700 cattle, 131,200 hogs, and 89,000 sheep. The week's receipts, compared with the preceding week in round numbers increased 16,300 cattle, 14,600 hogs, and decreased 5,300 sheep. Compare with the corresponding period a year ago cattle increased 2,200, hogs 9,900, and sheep decreased 19,600.

—D. B. Martin & Co., of Philadelphia, report in the following: A. B. Ratliff 93 head at 6 cents; English Anderson 142 cattle, 72 at 6 cents and 90 at 5 1/4 cents; W. T. Phelps 40 head at $5.90; H. H. Sutton 23 head at 6 cents; Prewitt Young 48 head at $5.90; half of these cattle go this month, the balance in October. This bunch of cattle will weigh from 1,400 to 1,600 pounds.

BUILD UP

in spring and summer, it's the natural time to store up health and vitality for the year.

Scott's Emulsion is Nature's best and quickest help.

Base Ball Fan is a Fickle Person

For the study of human nature, a fruitful field is found at the ball park. There human nature innocently and sincerely reveals itself. Insincerity and affectation are marked by their absence. The mask falls and men show themselves as they really are, just grown up boys.

Got a Good Seat in Front Where He Could Kid the Players on the Visiting Team

It is a good natured crowd that awaits the cry, "Play ball," meanwhile watching the practice and speculating upon the outcome of the game. They have dismissed all else from their minds—duties, engagements, debts and disease—and are perfectly happy in the shanton of the hour.

They smoke, munch peanuts, drink divers brands of drinks, chat with their neighbors; utterly regardless of the conventions that require introduction, hurl gibes and taunts at the visiting players, give loud praise and encouragement to favorites.

His Majesty, the "Dips," stalks upon the field arrayed in all the armor of the fray. He doffs his cap and faces the grandstand to announce the batteries with a bravado in the consciousness of inevitable offense to one side or both, that somehow calls to mind the lines:

In the fell clutch of circumstance
 I have not winced nor cried aloud.
 Under the bludgeonings of fate
 My head is bloody, but unbowed.

The batsman assumes his position; the coaches loosen their tongues; the fielders begin their chatter; the pitcher winds up—the game has begun.

Now observe. Formality, restraint, dignity are thrown to the four winds. Interest develops into enthusiasm and excitement. Unpopular players become "chokers," "bone heads," and many other varied and picturesque designations. The more fortunate brethren of the home team are "peaches," "candy kids," etc.

A man strikes at the ball. He is "swinging like a gate." He hits the ball and goes out at first, and he is politely informed that he runs like a cow, or moves "like an ice wagon." A fielder muffs a fly, and he is advised to "get a basket." A visiting player kicks on a decision and the umpire is strenuously advised to banish him from the field. The umpire sometimes "has a fine eye" and is "judging 'em right," but he is more likely to be accused of highway robbery and advised to "wash his windows." Home players are advised to "hit him on the bean," and the crowd is exhorted to "put him in the creek." Good advice, indeed.

The crowd is as fickle as a March wind. One moment there is deafening applause, the next a subdued murmur of "take him out of here." The next moment a player is a hero, the next he is an unrepentant apoplectic, and the "hook or the can" is vociferously called for. The crowd is absolutely unconventional. Argument, joking, witticisms are indiscriminately indulged in by strangers. The interest of the moment has robbed men of all sense of so-called propriety, has driven into exile all the shams of ordinary intercourse, and the spectators, preachers, lawyers, gamblers, of whatever they may be outside the ball park, are united in the spirit of a great brotherhood in the common delight and common enthusiasm of the hour.

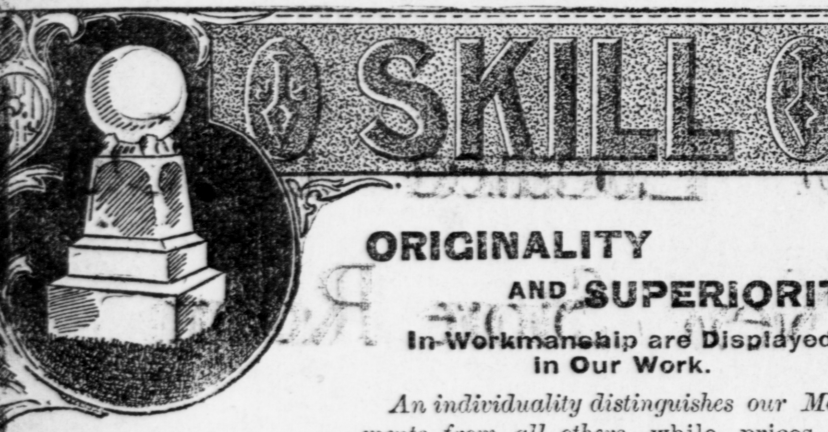

To observe humanity stripped of disguises, freed from restraints, permitting its real self to come to the surface, to behold the primitive passions, prejudices and emotions stand out in naked, bold relief; to understand what man would be untouched by the refining force of civilization—go to the ball park.

Death in Roaring Fire
 may result from the work of firebugs, but often severe burns are caused that make a quick need for Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the quickest, sweetest ointment for burns, wounds, bruises, boils, sores. It subdues inflammation. It kills pain, soothes and heals. Drives off skin eruptions, ulcers, of piles. Only 25c at Oberdorfer's.

They last a lifetime. They're fireproof—stormproof—expensive—suitable for all kinds of buildings. For further detailed information apply to.

WHAT CURES ECZEMA?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen compounded in D. D. D., can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

Because—We know that it gives instant relief to that torturing itch.
 Because—D. D. D. starts the cure at the foundation of the trouble.
 Because—it cleanses, soothes and heals the skin.

Because—It enables Nature to repair the ravages of the disease.
 Because—The records of ten years of complete cures of thousands of the most serious cases show that D. D. D. is today recognized as the absolutely reliable Eczema cure.

LIQUID CURES ECZEMA WHERE SALVE FAILS

In regard to skin diseases medical authorities are now agreed on this: Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid. WASH THE GERMS OUT. A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D. D. D. Prescription, penetrates to the disease germs and destroys it, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 25-cent trial bottle will start the cure, and give you instant relief.

Oscar George, pitching to rare form, twirled the Bourbonites to victory against the Pioneers in Richmond Friday afternoon. The locals put up a brilliant game behind the Bourbonite hurler and hit the ball at the most opportune time. Reese was touched for eight safe drives.

Errors on the part of the Pioneers were responsible for most of the runs and they put up a weak defense in the field. The slants of George were a complete puzzle. Haley the Pioneer initial sacker, clouted to the "Bull" sign and for the long drive will receive $50. The features of the game were the hitting of Mayer and the fielding of Barnett. McKernan was fined $5 by Umpire Alloway for taking exceptions to one of his decisions. The score:

Paris won from Maysville Saturday in a one-sided game by a score of 9 to 3. McKernan's men gave a fine exhibition of ball playing, while in several innings the River boys were up in the air and played like school boys.

Maysville scored twice in the first inning on a pass, a scratch hit and a two bagger. Paris also counted twice in the same inning on a walk and three singles.

In the fourth Hauser walked, Scheneberg bunted to Chase, who threw wild to first, and Carmony made no effort to recover the ball but stood on the sack while Hauser and Scheneberg both scored.

Paris counted three more in the sixth on a three bagger by Goodman and singles by Scheneberg and McKernan, and twice in the eighth on a pass and a three bagger and single by Harrell.

Paris fell a prey to the "cellar champs" Sunday afternoon in Maysville when the tail-enders in a hair-raising tail-end finish snatched victory from the McKernan tribe, running up a score of 5 to 4.

For eight innings Jimmie Hauser had the Shelton tribe eating out of his hands, but in the final test weakened to such a degree as to let the Rivermen scamper over the pan with five tallies.

In the second and third Paris accumulated four runs which looked good for a victory. Romaine was unsteady for a time but after the third tightened up and held the Bourbonites without another tally.

In the final round Langenham led off with a single, Carmony duplicated, and Williams doubled scoring Langenham. Shelton cleared the bases with a home run. Cleaver and Wiley hit into outs and Cranby singled past first. Snyder walked and Romaine hit to McKernan, who fumbled the ball allowing Cranby to count the winning run. The score:

Revenge was sweet for the McKernan tribe yesterday and smothering under the defeat of Sunday administered a complete shut-out to the Sheltonites in the contest which resulted 3 to 0.

Casas, the Mexican hurler, was pitted against Shears, but the snappy, errorless game put up by the locals resulted in a long line of goose eggs for the Rivermen. The score:

The Bourbon Fair.

Although the date for the 65th annual exhibition of the Bourbon County Agricultural Society is more than a month off the officers are busily engaged in planning for the event which will beyond doubt be the best ever held in the history of the organization.

The various committees are exerting themselves looking to a very successful meeting and neither time nor money will be spared to secure the best attractions and great inducements are being offered exhibitors.

The committee on music reports that Michael's Concert Band has been engaged to furnish the music during the week, Sept. 5-9, and as a special attraction has secured the soprano soloist, Miss Wilhelmina Hamman, who will sing each day during the fair.

Persuasion is Better Than Force.

Mr. Nichols carried no insurance and the exact amount of the loss sustained is unknown.

Drought Continues.

Not in a quarter of a century has Bourbon county experienced a drought of such damaging proportions as that which now affects every section of the county.

It is distressingly featured in dead and dying vegetation of all kinds, as only along the banks of some small stream can a green sprig of grass be seen. Gardens have suffered greatly and in most instances are barren of sufficient vegetables for family use. The tobacco crop is almost a complete cut-out, made so by the severity of the drought.

Corn is damaging, both early and late, and the agricultural outlook is almost without hope or promise. A refreshing rain—one that will soak the ground—will yet be of untold benefit, but it must come soon, very, very soon.

Bourbonites at Home Wednesday.

Today will conclude the series with the Maysville club and the Bourbonites will return to Paris Wednesday for a game with the winners of the championship of the first half of the series. As today is George's turn in the box it is likely he will be shoved in against the Rivermen and tomorrow "Cyclone" Jack Scheneberg will be on the firing line against the Hustlers.

Nothing would please the fans more than for the locals to give the Hustlers a good sound drubbing to the many defeats they have received at their hands, and it is believed Scheneberg, if in good form, can deliver the goods and put it over the Winchester to a queen's taste.

The excellent game the locals put up against the Rivermen yesterday, scoring a shutout which put Paris in the upper berth, one game ahead of the Colts, looks like they have their stride and will remain in that position. Should George hurl in the same fashion against the Rivermen as he did against the Pioneers in his last game, victory is assured. The fans should celebrate the home coming of the locals tomorrow by turning out in great numbers.

BLUE GRASS FAIR

FIFTH ANNUAL EXHIBITION

OPENS AT LEXINGTON MON.

AUGUST 7 AND CONTINUES SIX DAYS

Fair Bigger and Better Than Ever This Year. Numerous Attractions.

Including U. S. Marine Band, Aeroplanes, Flights by J. A. D. McCurdy, Daring Bird Men.

The fifth annual exhibition of the Blue Grass Fair Association at Lexington, Ky., begins on Monday after noon, August 7 and continues six days and nights through Saturday, August 12th.

Since its organization in 1906 the Blue Grass fair has taken full rank with the largest and the best of the state fairs and expositions of North America. It has very justly come to be known as the greatest horse show in the world. It is the only fair which offers a full quota and classification for breeding classes of the three great breeds of domesticated horses as well as show classes, simplified and arranged in a manner which makes their distinction clear.

Placed on a larger and more extensive scale than ever before, with the certainty of increased interest on account of various added features, this year's fair promises to eclipse all records. Numerous additions and improvements have been made in the matter of rings and amusement features have been secured to a kind and to an extent that justify the belief that the fair will prove not only more valuable than ever to the horse stock interests of Kentucky, but also more attractive to those who visit.

Three stakes are offered in the show classes for saddle horses, in addition to the first contest in the National Saddle Horse Futurity, which will hangar for weighing colts a total prize of three thousand dollars.

The fair will be opened at two o'clock on Monday afternoon, August 7th. Effort is being exerted to secure the presence of a speaker of national prominence, who will deliver a brief address. Following this, interesting show rings will be seen, races will be contested and a band concert by the noted United States Marine Band from Washington City will continue throughout the afternoon. Monday night at 7:45 the evening concert of the Marine Band will begin and the famous aggregation of Herbert A. Kline's world renowned carnival shows will offer opportunity for entertainment and amusement.

On Tuesday morning, August 8th the big mule show, always a most interesting feature of the Blue Grass fair will be seen, and Hereford cattle will be shown in the morning. Breeds of sheep and swine will be judged in the pens and the poultry judging will take place in the poultry house. The outstanding feature of Tuesday afternoon will be the contest for the National Saddle Horse Futurity, in which fifty or more colts will compete for the prize of three thousand dollars. There will also be various interesting rings for all kinds of show horses.

Also on Tuesday afternoon the first of the week's aeroplane flights by Mr. J. A. D. McCurdy will be given. In addition to flights over the grounds, in which he will attain an altitude of more than a mile, Mr. McCurdy will make a trip from the grounds to the city of Winchester, eighteen miles distant, carrying in the mayor of Winchester a letter from the officials of the Blue Grass fair. He will alight at Winchester and receive an answer to this letter and then leave immediately on his return trip. He expects to make the journey in a little more than one hour's time.

On Wednesday morning will be seen in front of the grand stand the classes for jack stock and the breeding classes for standard bred horses, which always afford one of the best shows during the week. On Wednesday afternoon's program appears the famous Blue Grass fair stake for five-gaited saddle horses, which for the past three years has produced the best show of five-gaited horses to be seen anywhere in the world. There will probably be twelve or more entries to this stake this year and an exciting contest is certain to result.

Thursday morning is given over the breeding classes for the American saddle horse and to classes for short horn cattle. The prizes offered for American saddle horses are particularly rich and desirable and are certain to result in a magnificent show. The display of short horns at the Blue Grass fair is well forth a trip of many miles to any man interested in beef cattle. On Thursday afternoon among the show features will be witnessed the Junior championship stake for five-gaited saddle horses and an excellent program of racing, varied show classes for roadsters, three-gaited, and five-gaited horses and for fine harness horses. On Saturday afternoon, also, as every other afternoon beginning with Tuesday, Mr. McCurdy will make three or more flights in his aeroplane which will prove both educational and spectacular.

Friday morning is devoted to Jersey cattle. This show will be more important than ever this year, because of the fact that a number of very valuable cattle have recently been added to the herds in the vicinity of Lexington. On Friday afternoon will be seen eleven rings for Shetland ponies, besides a large number of show classes open to different kinds of horses. Saturday is known as Thoroughbred Day. On that morning are seen rings in which are brought together many of the most famous thoroughbred

MILD, GENTLE LAXATIVE FOR WOMEN GIVEN FREE

So many of the ills of women are due to habitual constipation, probably because of undue false modesty on the subject, that their attention is called too strongly to the importance of keeping the bowels open. It is always important to do that regard, less of the sex, but it is especially important in women.

From the time the girl begins to menstruate until menopause ceases she has always better prospects of coming through healthy if she watches her bowel movements. If you find yourself constipated, with bad breath, dimly complexion, headaches, belching gas and other symptoms of indigestion and constipation, take a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it to be a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Solves a Deep Mystery.

"I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart," wrote C. B. Rader, of Lewisburg, W. Va., "for the wonderful double benefit I got from Electric Bitters, in curing me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and of rheumatism, from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years. It suited my case as I had made just for me." For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters has no equal. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50c at Oberdorfer's.

They Will.

"Don't eat when you are tired," is the latest health ultimatum, notwithstanding which most folks will continue to eat when their day's work is through.

Too True.

"Bridget, I feel so ill I wish you would not go out today. Couldn't you get what you are going for just as well tomorrow?" "Faith, an Oi can—tomorrow or any day. I was going out to get meself a new job."—Harper's Bazar.

The Burglar's Umbrella.

Among a collection of articles used by burglars when engaged in their nefarious calling is one particular contrivance that arouses great interest. In appearance it resembles a large umbrella that has seen hard service. It was formerly the property of a burglar, and it was by its means that he was able to enter the second story of a building. Removing the cover, a stick wound with ropes is revealed. The stick opens like a telescope or a jointed fishing rod. Wound round it is a rope ladder made of strong material and about thirteen feet in length. The ladder is only wide enough for one foot to be placed on the rungs. The extending stick was used to raise one end of the ladder to the window through which the operator wished to enter, and on the upper end of the ladder are two hooks to be fastened to the sill. This imitation umbrella is regarded as one of the most ingenious affairs ever made use of by a thief.—London Standard.

Took the Shilling.

A recruiting sergeant one day met an ignorant youth idling, with his hands in his pockets and standing before a house on the front of which was a notice informing the public that the building was to be sold. The notice ran thus: "To Be Sold by Private Treaty."

The sergeant approached the youth and asked him if he had ever thought of joining the army.

"Not me," was the reply. "You'd have nothing in the army worth talking about."

"Is that so?" said the other. "Well, how is it then Private Treaty has a house for sale and him only a private yet?"

The youth looked thoughtful and puzzled, and presently, over a pint of ale, the possibility of owning a house by joining the army grew into a certainty and the shilling changed hands.—London Tit-Bits.

Wonderful Animalculae.

Of all the minute creatures that inhabit this globe unseen by the naked eye there is none so astonishing, according to the Scientific American, as the little living things that live in stagnant water. They are called slipper animalculae, or, as the scientist has it, the paramcium. These tiny, invisible things develop so rapidly that if they were able to live through 350 generations they would crowd every other living thing off the face of the earth and form a mass larger than the planet itself. Should they go on reproducing until the nine hundredth generation these little creatures would form a mass large enough to crowd the moon and stars and even the sun entirely out of space. Luckily for us this is not possible, according to nature's decree. The paramcium dies after it has attained the one hundred and seventieth generation, and so the awful possibilities are checked of its multiplying to fill the universe.

Japan's Snapping Turtle Farm.

One of the oldest farms in the world turns out each year tens of thousands of snapping turtles and has solved the problem of preserving the supply of what is to the Japanese as great a delicacy as diamond back terrapin is to some Americans. This queer farm consists of a number of ponds. Certain of them are set apart as breeding ponds. Once a day a man goes over the shores and with little wire baskets covers up all new egg deposits. Sometimes thousands of these wire baskets are in sight at a time marking the places where the eggs lie and preventing turtles from scratching the earth from them. Hatching requires from forty to sixty days, according to the weather. The young as soon as they appear are put in separate small ponds and are fed with finely chopped fish. They eat this during September and October and late in October burrow in the mud for the winter, coming out in April or May. Most of them are sold in the market when they are from three to five years old, at which time they are most delicate.—Harper's.

A Resourceful Badger.

An English artist while painting a sea piece discovered a badger's lair and thought to play the animal a practical joke. Gathering together a bundle of grass and weeds, he placed it inside the mouth of the hole and, lighting it with a match, waited for the ignominious flight of the astonished householder. But Master Badger was a resourceful animal and not disposed to be made a butt of practical jokers. He came up from the depths of his hole as soon as the penetrating smoke told him that there was a fire on the premises and deliberately scratched earth on the burning grass with his strong claws until all danger was past. No human being could have grasped the situation more quickly or displayed greater skill in dealing with an unfamiliar event.

Building a Reputation.

Young physicians in the smaller towns have an idea that appearing very busy will help them greatly in starting a practice. The following is told by a now prominent Kentucky physician. He had a call the afternoon following the hanging out of his shingle and started through town in his buggy at terrific speed. A policeman stopped the enterprising physician.

"Doctor," he said, "it is against the city ordinance to drive at the speed you are going. You must accompany me to the judge and pay your fine."

"What is the fine?" inquired the doctor.

"Five dollars."

The doctor's hand flew to his pocket. "Here's $10. I have to come back just as fast as I am going."—Success Magazine.

Ambition.

The scroll of fame has variant attractions for different minds. "Here lies one whose name was writ in water"—the despairing and dying John Keats desired that admission of defeat engraved for his epitaph.

"Write me as one who loved his fellow men," was Leigh Hunt's aspiration.

To be remembered as the author of the Declaration of Independence and of the first statute for religious freedom and as the founder of the University of Virginia, this was Thomas Jefferson's prayer to posterity.

Thus one may go the range. And thus the lines recur:

Ambition is our idol, on whose wings Great minds are carried only to extreme, To be sublimely great or to be nothing.

Generous Tramp.

"Please gimme a quarter," begged a panhandler on Washington street. "I won't hand yer no tale about bein' hungry, pard—honest, I wanten git a drink."

"But," we objected (for it was indeed us), "you don't need a quarter to buy a drink."

"Sir," answered the panhandler, "do youse tink I'm fallen so low as ter take a gent's money an' den not invite him ter drink wid me?"—Boston Traveller.

Salt Eaters.

Idiosyncrasy often takes the form of a special craving for instead of an objection to certain foods. Many people possess an extraordinary relish for common salt and will eat it by the teaspoonful when opportunity admits. This sometimes leads to obesity and dropsy, but it has also the peculiar effect of increasing the weight.

Highly Improper.

"What is the proper thing for a man to do when his wife asks him for money and he hasn't any?" queried young Newed.

"Oh, there isn't any proper thing to do under those circumstances," replied Oldwed. "Anything he does will be wrong."—Chicago News.

When a Man Makes His Will.

It is a morbid superstition that a man dies when he makes his will. More often he lives happily and long after he has done so. It relieves his anxieties.—London Saturday Review.

Past That Now.

Bystander—My boy, some day you'll bring sorrow to your father's gray hairs. The Bad Boy—No danger, sir. Worrying about me has made him bald.—Philadelphia Times.

A Few Words.

"Did you have many words with your wife last night?"
"No; only a few words, but they were repeated—very often."

Quarantine Declared.

Scabbies in sheep in Kentucky is being stamped out so rapidly by the methods now being used that the quarantine against about twenty-five counties in Western Kentucky, west of Green River, will be lifted within the next few months. The State Live Stock Sanitary Board held a meeting recently and heard a report from Dr. A. J. Payne, of the National Government, who is conducting the fight against scabbies in Kentucky. Dr. Payne said the situation is much better and the scabbies is being stamped out even faster than he had hoped. He recommended that a quarantine be established against all states which use any but the same dip used in this State. The board declared the quarantine in effect so that only the states which use the tobacco dip, which is used officially in Kentucky, can ship sheep into the State.

Dr. Payne reported that ninety-two counties are working to eradicate scabbies. In sixty-five of these counties infection has been found. In twenty-seven counties practically no work is being done. In three of these twenty-seven counties, namely, Breathitt, Knott and Letcher, the County Judge has failed to appoint a county live stock inspector. Three-fourths of the counties that are not pushing this work are located in the eastern section of the State.

He reported that 534,267 sheep had been inspected during the past three months and found to be free from scabbies; 845 had been found exposed; 39,762 were found infected with scabbies. This makes a total of 574,874 sheep that have been inspected in the last three months. The Assessors' report show that there are 650,000 assessed in the State. He also reported that there had been 50,925 sheep dipped under official supervision. This report is complete up to July 1.

This is a Funny World.

We meet a man who takes to hard drink just because he didn't get the girl, and then we meet another who persists in drinking hard just because he got her.

Joke.

"What are you laughing at, Josiah?"
"I've just been thinking what a joke it would have been on Delilah if Samson had worn a wig."—Chicago Record-Herald.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years exposed to pronounced it to be a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
